

THE SLIM DUSTY CENTRE in collaboration with
DUNGHUTTI-NGAKU ABORIGINAL ART GALLERY

Invite you to join us for the opening of the exhibition with morning tea and
Welcome to Country by Aunty Esther on Thursday APRIL 6th at 10.30am
RSVP (for catering) - 6562 6533

Five Women Connected & Seen

Alison Williams

Rosalee Quinlin

Mabel Ritchie

Esther Quinlin

Verquelle Fisher

Artists - Verquelle Fisher, Esther Quinlín, Rosalee Quinlín,
Mabel Ritchie & Alison Williams - April 6 to May 21, 2017

Five Women Connected & Seen

Come and see this richly diverse exhibition about exploring cultural identity. Join the artists in the Nulla Nulla Gallery, as they take you on their journey creating beautiful artworks and telling their stories. Get connected to Aboriginal culture through their stories and artworks and learn something new and inspirational.

The Five Women Connected & Seen Exhibition made possible by:
Indigenous Visual Arts Industry Support Program.

The Five Women Connected & Seen project is funded by Arts NSW under the Aboriginal Regional Arts Fund

SLIM DUSTY CENTRE T: (02) 65626533 F: (02) 65621849 Free Call: 1800 18SLIM
490 Macleay Valley Way South Kempsey WEBSITE: www.slimdustycentre.com.au